CHURCH SERVICES .- All the churches in the city were open yesterday, and all were well at

The ordinance of Immersion was conferred upon seven persons in the Baptist Church, during the night service. During the Rev. Father Kroes' remarks at St. Mary's Church, in the evening, he mentioned that during his ministrations in this city, upon a late occasion, a poor widowed mother, residing six miles from this city, discovered that her unbaptized infant child was dying. There was no one in whose care she could leave her baby until she could come to town for the priest, and had there been such a one, appearances too plainly told her that the little sufferer's span of life was too short to admit of such delay; so, though sick and weak herself, her desire for the welfare of her child prompted her to wrap it up as carefully and as comfortably as possible, and taking it in her arms she ran, rather than walked, the distance from her home to Alexandria. Fortunately the Rev. Father was standing in the door of his church, as the poor woman tottered up the steps with her burden, and, placing it in his hands, had breath enough only to say: "My child is dying." Time was precious, so stepping to the Baptismal Font, just within the door, and without his sacerdotal robes, he baptized the child, and just as the ceremony was concluded the spirit of the poor mother's darling winged its way to Heaven.

Bishop John Johns preached at Grace Church, in the morning, and administered the rite of confirmation to three candidates.

At the African Methodist Church in the morning, after Judge Underwood had addressed the Sunday School Scholars, '(and we are happy to say he gave them very excellent advice, for he told them above all mundane things to avoid the use of intoxicating liquor), for which he received a vote of thanks, the Rev. Mr. Hunnicutt- preached a sermon from the fifth chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, in the course of which, the only remarkable hope he expressed was that the Judges in the South were as honest as Pontius Pilate! The Rev. gentleman preached at Beulah Chapel in the evening, and at the colored Baptist Church, on Alfred street, at night. He will deliver a free lecture in the African Methodist Church, on Washington street, next Wednesday night.

OYSTERS .- As but few, oysters can be obtained at Annapolis, several of the oyster dealers of Washington and this city, are shipping oysters from Norfolk to Petersburg, then to Richmond, and again to this city by the Virginia Central and Orange and Alexandria railroad companies. This is a roundabout way, and costs at least $9 per barrel freight for the bivalves. Folks must have oysters, and they are obliged to pay for them.

THE REV. MR. BITTING'S LECTURE.-The Rev C. C. Bitting, formerly the popular and eloquent pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, has been invited by Andrew Jackson Lodge of Free Masons, of which he is a member, to deliver a lecture for the benefit of our Orphan Asylum. Mr. Bitting has, we are happy to state, accepted the invitation, and has appointed the night of Thursday the seventh of February, as the time for the pro posed lecture. The subject and place will be published hereafter.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. - The improvement of price only. the Smithsonian Institute and the rebuilding of the portion destroyed by fire is being pushed forward as rapidly as the funds on hand will admit. The new roof is to be constructed of wrought iron, covered with a slate roof, fastened with copper wire, and making it absolutely fireproof.

Quite a convention of distinguished military men will take place bere this week. Already Gens. George H. Thomas, Pope, Sickles, Schofield and Ward are here, and General Sheridan is expected to arrive on Tuesday. -The latter comes to testify before the New Orleans riot committee. General Thomas goes before the committee on sales of Southern rail

A man named Hinckleman, and two other persons, were arrested again on Friday, while supposed to be making an attempt to operate upon passengers on the train from Richmond. They were ordered to leave the city and started for Baltimore.

EUROPE.

LATEST BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

We have advices from Europe by the cable to Friday last. The U. S. steamer Swatara, with John H. Surratt on board, was reported at Port Mahon Island recently. The French people generally are said to express dissatisfaction with the proposed reforms in the policy of the Government. The members of the German Confederation have agreed to the scheme proposed by the Prussian Government: Information has been received at Brest that the workingmen were assembling riotously at Madrid, and were clamoring for bread. A serious outbreak was anticipated, and the Government was taking measures to meet it. It was reported at London that Prussia had demanded an explanation of Austria in regard to the concentration by the latter of troops in Gallicia The official journal at Copenhagen denies that the Danish Government has any intention of selfing the Island of St. Thomas, in the W. Indies, to the United States. Quite and a breast pin. The value of the contents of formidable bread riots are said to have occurred at Greenwich, near London. Dispatches received at London state that the Cretan war is ended, and that the volunteers had gone back

THE POOR YE HAVE ALWAYS WITH YOU. -The following appeal in behalf of the destiplies to the people of this community as well as to those of Louisville:

"We have very cold and bitter weather upon us, and those who are sitting by comfortable fires, wrapped in comfortable clothing, and are sleeping at night on downy beds, in warm and comfortable rooms, should think of the suffering poor, who sorely need these things, but have them not, and, out of the abundance with which they are blest, they should give to the needy children of want, and make their hearts rejoice. Go ye who have wealth, and ye, also, who are in moderate circumstances, and visit the desolate hearth, where the poverty-stricken widow and her orphan children sit shivering in cold and hunger and want. Seek them out, and take them something to eat and something to wear; send them a load of coal and a basket of provisions. If you cannot afford to buy new garments for them, give them your cast-off old ones. Much warmth lies hid in an old coat or an old dress, and it may cheer the recipient's heart, and start the tears of thankfulness to eyes that have not lately seen a friend.

Of all the sweet pleasures which wealth affords, there is nothing like that which springs numerous pedestrians, from this city. This morning the ice cutters were procuring ice from spots from which it had been taken last week, and entirely free from snow, seven and a half inches thick. Old ice on the river is now one foot thick.
